

A revolutionary material with unique qualities, the result of years of research and a journey which has led to 25 patents. Lapitec® is the only sintered stone in the world, a timeless surface that is 100% natural, composed of a selected mixture of the purest minerals, ideal for embellishing any room. Lapitec® is a full body material, identical on the inside and outside with no prints on the surface. It is produced in large format slabs, in different thicknesses, and is recognised in the world of design for reinterpreting cladding, flooring, SPAs, swimming pools, kitchen tops, yachts and bathrooms with an essential style.
